RIXEY IS INSANE: GOES TO ASYLUM;

Broken Banker Pititul Sight in Court.

FAILURE RUINED MANY

C. Jones Rixey, indicted president of the collapsed Virginia Safe Deposit and Trust Corporation, was declared insane by a lunacy commission in the Corporation Court at Alexandria yesterday afternoon and sent to the Western State Hospital for the Insure, at Staunton, Va., in charge of Supt. J. S. de Jarnette. This action virtually ends the case of the financier, who operated a chain of eight banks throughout the State, with his main bank in Alexandria. ALIENISTS MAKE REPORT.

Judge Barley appointed Dr. J. S. De Jarnette, superintendent of the Western State Hospital for the Insane, and Dr. W. F. Drewry, superintendent of the Central State Asylum for the Insane, Central State Asylum for the Insane, Petershurg, Va., a commission to examine into the sanity of Rixey, and the court took a recess until 1 o'clock. It was shortly after 4 o'clock when the com-mission completed its labors. Among the witnesses examined were Drs. Brai the winceses examined were lors. Brai-sted and Crittenton, of Washington, and Scott and Crittenton, of Grange, Va. The seport made by the altenists, in part, reads. "We find him instanc, and in no condition to be tried at this time, our opinion being based on personal examination and the depositions pre-sented."

of the court, moonwealth's Attorney Brent favor-Commonwealth's Attorney Brent favored sending the accused to the criminal best awdition at Marion, Va. as soon as it is ready to receive him. It had been already stated by Supt. De Jarnette. of Staunton, that the Marion asylum would not be completed for about a year.

Judge Barley set November 22 next as the date for hearing arguments as two whether the court has the right to send like the sextum for the criminal instance, and in the meantime directed that he be returned to the asylum at Staunton.

Rivey arrived in Alexandria shortly her-fere meen, accompanied by Dr. De Jar-neste and Dr. Freed, of Staunton; his brother, Dr. Preeley M. Rixey, and City Serst. Cox met the party and the ac-cused was brought to sourt in a carriage. The former banker was a pitiable ob-ject as he was assisted up the narrow

Ject as he was assisted up the marrow steps to the courthouse. His face was drawn and hazgard; he walked slowly and with a stoop, and carried a cane. He appeared oblivious to the surround-lings. Hecoming exhausted during the ex-amination, a cot was produced for him. When the examination was completed Rixey was assisted into the court room, and the same vacant stare and apparent unconcern characterized the man at the bar of lustice.

neconcern characterized the man at the bar of lantice. Before court adjourned, Attorney Jeffries made a statement regarding the rule against C. J. Rixey, Jr. for conteront in having his father sent to an asylum. The explanation being satisfactory, the matter was dropped. Representing the broken-down banker in court were John L. Jeffries, of Nor-folk, John S. Barbour, of Fairfax, James R. Caton and son, Alexandria; J. G. Hiden, Culrerer, and C. J. Rixey, Jr., of Washington.

The bank of which Rixey was the heat went into the hands of receivers De cember 3, 1916. the predominance of frings trimming. For street wear are shown suits whose chief novelty is the long and wide lapel, the somewhat wider skirt which yet preserves the narrow silhouette effect, and distinctly new sinhouette effect, and print paying collers and cuffs of materials in colors contrasting with the color of the coat, so that reversing it gives a new combination entirely.

Waists were never so rich or beautiful as new, it would seem, most of them being either imported waists or models copied from those brought from abroad. Handsome marguisties, chiffons, laces in veiled effects, and many showing the broad side frill that has taken the fashion world by storm; heavy margane cord layers are effectively compared.
